Hendrik Lochthowe wins Intermediate A - Isabell Werth arrived for Bubble Soccer

"Only the elephant from the left irritated him a bit", Hendrik Lochthowe has to smile at his Bricco Barone, who didn't even notice the big decorators at the examination square of the CDI 4* in Leudelange/LUX during training, only to flinch in the Intermediate A for a moment. "But apart from that, he already walked very self-confidently and could show his potential especially in the gallop tour", the 39-year-old was happy about his now ten-year-old four-legged friend, who has been in the possession of his sponsor Ralph Uwe Westhoff for a good year and a half - and is getting closer and closer to the Grand Prix goal. "This was our first international place in the Medium Tour - and a victory at once," said Hendrik Lochthowe, who was able to keep Uwe Schwanz in check with 69.97 percent on Rockson, albeit only by slightly more than 0.2 percentage points. Third place went to Kristine Møller from Luxembourg on Hamilton (67.61 percent).

After the German pony riders held their last European Championship sighting at the dressage tournament in Leudelange in the team and individual competitions will Shona Benner, Antonia Busch-Kuffner, Lana-Pinou Baumgürtel and Rose Oatley represent the German colours in Poland, the youngest in the team, Rose Oatley, once again set an exclamation mark behind her nomination with her superior victory on her Daddy Moon (78.65 percent) in the final freestyle. Antonia Busch-Kuffner with Daily Pleasure WE (76.43 percent) and Paulina von Wulffen with Dujardin B (75.30 percent) ranked second and third.

The Quaterhall daughter Quatre-Quarts A L'Orange with Kristine Møller won the final of the five-year-old dressage horses with 87.40 percent. In the seven-year-old's Preliminary Test, Titolas had the lead with Susanne Krohn in the saddle (76.68), just like last year.

The Bubble Soccer Tournament on the evening of the third tournament day proved that the fun at the CDI 4* in Leudelange is not neglected. Christoph Koschel, among others, also struggled for the winning goal with one of the big ball suits and a lot of physical effort. But against the team Power Rangers the team Koschel Dressage had no chance. Showdown is then on Saturday - before the evening Grand Prix freestyle: Isabell Werth arrives for an autograph hour at 2 p.m. and will challenge the team Power Ranger personally in the fight for the Bubble Soccer Trophy of Leudelange.
